

A SUDDEN GOLD.

Miss Helen Sauerbier, of 815 Main St., St. Joseph, Mich., writes an interesting letter on the subject of catching cold, which cannot fail to be of value to all women who catch cold easily.

PERUNA ADVISED FOR SUDDEN COLDS.

It Should be Taken According to Directions on the Bottle, at the First Appearance of the Cold.

ST. JOSEPH, MICH., Sept., 1901.—Last winter I caught a sudden cold which developed into an unpleasant catarrh of the head and throat, depriving me of my appetite and usual good spirits. A friend who had been cured by Peruna advised me to try it and I sent for a bottle at once, and I am glad to say that in three days the phlegm had loosened, and I felt better, my appetite returned and within nine days I was in my usual good health.

—Miss Helen Sauerbier.
Peruna is an old and well tried remedy for colds. No woman should be without it.

Upward by Degrees.

For man must be disappointed with the lesser things of life before he can comprehend the full value of the greatest.—Lord Lytton.

Stop That Cough

Hard Work.

Patience—That Miss Fussenfeather holds her head quite high since her father got an automobile.

Patrice—Yes; she's trying to keep her nose above range of the smell of the gasoline.

A Marvelous Eye Remedy.

Those who know what intense pains come with some diseases of the eye can hardly believe Mitchell's Eye Salve is able to do all that is claimed for it, but a trial soon convinces one of the extraordinary curative powers of this little remedy. Sold all over the United States. Price 25c.

Found When Hope Had Gone.

It was when capital and hope were alike exhausted that a last desperate stroke of the pick revealed the fabulous riches of the Big Bonanza silver mine in 1873—a treasure house which has since yielded ore valued at $150,000,000.

Two at the Game.

"Austin, before I punish you tell me why you were making so much noise," demanded Mr. Wyss.

"I was just playin' automobile, pa," sobbed the youngster.

"Keep on playing," suggested Mr. Wyss. "Turn turtle."—Illustrated Sunday Magazine.

A Common Regard.

"Just back from your vacation?"

"Yes."

"How was it?"

"Fine. I haven't but one regret."

"What's that?"

"I wish I had waited until next month to take it."

"Why?"

"So I would have it to take."

Even to China Land.

The equal-rights wave has reached the shores of China, and it is reported that a number of wives in Canton have left their husbands, saying that they will no longer be subject to them. The wives have had the worst of it however, as the law gives power to imprison them, and they have had to suffer the consequences of their rash resolves.

Riches Found by Accident.

Peter Terreros, a muleteer, discovered by accident the Real del Monte deposits in Hidalgo, and at the end of 12 years had won $15,000,000, and a Spanish title of nobility; and, to give another example, two brothers named Bolados, who earned a miserable livelihood by carrying fuel, found in a crevice opened by earthquake, an enormous block of silver worth $1,250,000.

WANTED TO KNOW

The Truth About Grape-Nuts Food.

It doesn't matter so much what you hear about a thing, it's what you know that counts. And correct knowledge is most likely to come from personal experience.

"About a year ago," writes a N. Y. man, "I was bothered by indigestion, especially during the forenoon. I tried several remedies without any permanent improvement."

"My breakfast usually consisted of oatmeal, steak or chops, bread, coffee and some fruit."

"Hearing so much about Grape-Nuts, I concluded to give it a trial and find out if all I had heard of it was true."

"So I began with Grape-Nuts and cream, 2 soft boiled eggs, toast, a cup of Postum and some fruit. Before the end of the first week I was rid of the acidity of the stomach and felt much relieved."

"By the end of the second week all traces of indigestion had disappeared and I was in first rate health once more. Before beginning this course of diet, I never had any appetite for lunch, but now I can enjoy a hearty meal at noon time." "There's a Reason."
